

Alfie Highback Armchair K6801

Designed exclusively for Knightsbridge Furniture by Sean Dare, the Alfie range exudes style whilst offering excellent comfort. Featuring angular lines complemented with a masculine finish, the Alfie is the perfect standalone feature for a meeting room or breakout space.

The workplace should be a dynamic environment, designed to foster creativity and encourage the birth of new ideas. The design has been approached with this in mind, crafting the piece to feel remarkably reminiscent of the home environment, to help encourage social interaction between colleagues and heighten productivity and wellbeing of employees.
